

Lewisham Thriving Communities: A sharing and discussion

Creative exercise, led by Erica Heskett from the Poetry Translation Centre

A poem about love, without using the words 'I love you'

written by participants in the Zoom chat

11:04:55 From Poet to Everyone:

Sun rising in burnt orange, the beauty of feeling held by you

11:04:59 From Poet to Everyone:

You're great, you are

11:05:02 From Poet to Everyone:

Your smile brings sunshine to my heart

11:05:04 From Poet to Everyone:

I'll drive you back

11:05:06 From Poet to Everyone:

Can I make you a coffee?

11:05:06 From Poet to Everyone:

Cup of tea?

11:05:07 From Poet to Everyone:

While we are apart, look at the moon at 9pm and know that I am thinking of you

11:05:07 From Poet to Everyone:

My cheeks ache so much from smiling

11:05:08 From Poet to Everyone:

I've bought a gateaux for pudding

11:05:11 From Poet to Everyone:

Yes, you can have that pet alpaca!

20/10/2022

11:05:12 From Poet to Everyone:

I see your smile

11:05:15 From Poet to Everyone:

Never again but always for you

11:05:16 From Poet to Everyone:

You're on my mind

11:05:16 From Poet to Everyone:

The river twinkles in the sunshine

11:05:17 From Poet to Everyone:

I've missed you!

11:05:19 From Poet to Everyone:

We're in and without, all at once.

11:05:20 From poet to Everyone:

You are my centre of gravity, you are the lovely cuppa tea

11:05:21 From Poet to Everyone:

I got you a fleece so you can keep cosy

11:05:26 From poet to Everyone:

you ground me, bring me perspective, calm, laughter, fun, energy...
